East European, Russian, and Central Asian Studies

Minor Code: 221

Required hours: 18-21 hours

The minor in East European, Russian and Central Asian Studies is offered to students who wish to explore the full context of the past and present concerns of Eastern Europe, Russia, and Central Asia. Students are advised to contact the coordinator of the program early in their program.

Courses cannot be used for the minor if fulfilling core curriculum requirements.

I. Core (12 hours) At least 6 hours in Russian languages

- RSN 1010 _____ (3) Beginning Russian I
- RSN 1020 _____ (3) Beginning Russian II
- RSN 1040 _____ (3) Intermediate Russian I (MC)
- RSN 1050 _____ (3) Intermediate Russian II (MC)
- GHY 3011 _____ (3) Europe and the Russian Realm (W, MC)
- HIS 4550 _____ (3) Tsarist Russia (W)
- OR
- HIS 4552 _____ (3) Europe and the Russian Realm (W)

II. Electives (6 hours) Must be approved by the Coordinator. (Students may choose courses not used in Area I. Core above.)

- RSN 1010 _____ (3) Beginning Russian I
- RSN 1020 _____ (3) Beginning Russian II
- RSN 1040 _____ (3) Intermediate Russian I (MC)
- RSN 1050 _____ (3) Intermediate Russian II (MC)
- GHY 3011 _____ (3) Europe and the Russian Realm (W, MC)
- HIS 4550 _____ (3) Tsarist Russia (W) OR HIS 4552 _____ (3) Europe and the Russian Realm (W)
- HIS 353x _____ (3) Selected Topics: Soviet-Chinese Borders
- HIS 353x _____ (3) Selected Topics: World at War
- HIS 3530-3549 Appropriate Selected Topics courses

________________________________________________________________________

ENG 3530-3549 Selected Topics courses in Russian/Eastern European literature

________________________________________________________________________